For twelve years we have made it our practice to acquire the best Major and Independent company feature pictures and short subjects for the 16mm. field.

Also in keeping with established custom, substantial price reductions have been made on many pictures and all prices quoted are the lowest figures possible for quality pictures on quality prints.

Apparently, this policy has proven to be right, having manifested itself in our growth and expansion, and reflected itself further in our many satisfied friends and customers.

In this new, consolidated Thirteenth Edition Catalog, can be found a wide selection of fine films to suit the tastes of the most discriminating; films produced by the leading studios in Hollywood, featuring stars and directors whose names are all familiar.

CONTRACTS

All subjects marked (*L) after the listed price are available under long-term lease only, and are subject to contractual agreements. Full information regarding these contract requirements will be furnished upon request.

Those pictures listed with no lease symbol, are available without lease.

Duplication of these films, in whole or in part, in any width, or their use for other than non-theatrical purposes, is strictly prohibited and is in violation of the copyright laws. Radio, television, coin or slot machine or any other rights are not granted, it being understood such rights are reserved by the copyright owners. Any infringement of such rights will subject the violator to prosecution under the United States Copyright laws.

MAJOR FEATURES Streamlined

The Streamlined Major Features are superb productions designed to meet special needs. Admirably produced, with outstanding stars, they fill a need for shorter programs running less than one hour. For school and other recreational programs for instance, they provide entertainment complete in every dramatic sense, but meeting the requirement for shorter running time. For longer programs they allow for the elastic use of a variety of interesting short subjects to be added to the Streamlined Features.

MAJOR FEATURES

Our group of Major Features are outstanding for their high quality entertainment value, making use, as they do, of exceptional casts, scenarists, directors and production facilities. They range from such a deeply beautiful production as John Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men", to the ever-popular comedy of Laurel and Hardy—literally a galaxy of Star-Studded films.

MONOGRAM Features and Westerns

These 48 Features and 28 Westerns cover the range of emotions as thoroughly as no other group on the market has done; they include rousing out-of-door adventures, intriguing mysteries, laugh provoking comedies, entertaining musicals, and the hard-hitting, fast moving Westerns. Our Monogram program offers sheer, straightforward, popular entertainment appealing to the widest audiences, and this, making for the added assurance of maximum profits, marks this group as the best in the field.

INDEPENDENT Features and Westerns

For those libraries and dealers seeking lower-priced pictures, dramas, musicals, comedies, and westerns, we offer our Independent non-lease films — again offering a wide variety of subject matter, many with outstanding casts. With the continued growth of the 16mm. industry, such Independent non-lease pictures are becoming scarcer.

SHORT SUBJECTS

Our list of short subjects is also selective and includes a fine group of films suitable for the Church, School, and Home. In this field, too, our policy of careful and high quality additions will be maintained and periodic announcements made of new releases.

ALASKA

In outdoor snow and mountain settings, the story is given reality and vitality. Claim jumping and murder are equally serious in the eyes of frontier-law and both are motives for one of the author's best tales. An Alaskan gold mining town becomes the crossroads for a conglomeration of people, all seeking quick riches. The conflict is natural and violent, but it makes for a robust story, high in entertainment value.

As the winners of a contest, two Eagle Scouts; Bob Ford and Jim Adams start on an airplane tour of South America but the plane is forced down and wrecked in the jungles of Central America.

The pilot is badly injured, but the boys escape unhurt. They make camp and the pilot is left there, while the boys start out in search of help. A multitude of strange and perilous adventures await them.—They are captured and narrowly escape death as human sacrifices—They find a lost white explorer and locate the hiding place of a vast treasure—only to encounter more grave dangers in meeting savage jungle life and even more savage natives.

In a spectacular finale, when all seems lost, they are rescued by searching planes.

Classic — Mystery SHORT SUBJECTS

IT was Edgar Allan Poe who originated the mystery story form and exercised a great literary influence on all similar writing which reached its height in our present time. Wilkie Collins, the English author, was a late contemporary of Poe's and a product of the Victorian period. The cinema interpretations of two works by these authors are presented for the first time in 16mm. The third is an original cinema story and completes our group of classic mysteries in short subject form.

THE TELL-TALE HEART

by Edgar Allan Poe

with RICHARD HART. One of the most gripping of Poe's tales is this one about the murderer whose supersensitive mind "hears" the beating heart of his victim beneath the floor of his room. None but Poe, the originator of the "mystery" story, could tell this story in a manner which roots you to your chair. You will be treated to a new thrill in story-telling and photography and in the splendid performance of Richard Hart and direction of William Cameron Menzies.

2 Reels—17 Minutes..........Price: $50.00

A TERRIBLY STRANGE BED

by Wilkie Collins

with RICHARD GREENE and ROMAN BOHNEN. Done in the classical manner of the Victorians, this story by the author of Arsene Lupin, retains the tense mystery and flavor of drama peculiar to the writers of the 19th Century. From beginning to end, this fascinating tale of a stranger in a strange, monstrous bed, told in the first person, will command your hypnotized attention.

The acting is superbly performed by Richard Greene and Roman Bohnen and directed equally well by William Cameron Menzies.

2 Reels—16 Minutes..........Price: $50.00

MARIONETTE MYSTERY

with REGIS TOOMEY. Here is something new in mystery dramas, done in miniature. You, the audience, feel as if you are part of the drama, in the same room, one of the suspected. You will breathe with relief when someone else is proved to be the guilty one, someone on the screen. It all happens before your eyes and it's all solved in a new kind of climax. William Cameron Menzies again proves his ability by this clever creation.

2 Reels—21 Minutes..........Price: $60.00

NATURE

IN MAGNIFICENT photography this series presents scenes of real—natural life that are equal to, if not more amazing and dramatic than, the most unbelievable stories of fiction.

Strange living things—on the land—in the waters—and in the air—Some gigantic in size, others so small that they are invisible to the human eye, but they are shown in bold relief and startling detail by the microscopic camera lens.

While designed as educational subjects, they are equally absorbing and impressive for entertainment purposes.

CATHEDRAL OF CHARTRES

The Cathedral of Chartres stands as a superhuman achievement in art and architecture. When the original church was destroyed, seven hundred years ago, the people, old and young, came from afar to erect the present edifice. Here are the most noble examples of sculpture of a sublime century.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY
